MORE INFORMATION ABOUT OBTAINING A VISA

Nepal offers the convenient option of obtaining an "on-arrival" visa at the airport. Costs of visas vary depending on the length of time you are planning to stay in Nepal. You will be required to pay the fee in cash at the airport in Nepal. US Dollars are preferred, but they do accept other foreign currencies as well.

15 days = US$30
90 days = US$125

We highly recommend you fill out the visa application in advance and bring two copies of the completed form with you. You can fill out the visa application 14 days prior to your scheduled departure here: <https://nepaliport.immigration.gov.np/online>

You may also obtain your visa ahead of time by working with a Nepali Embassy or Consulate in your country. Please note the following guidance from the Nepal immigration website:

"If you have obtained visa from Nepalese Diplomatic Missions, then you must enter Nepal within six months from the visa issued date. Your total stay is counted starting from the day you enter into Nepal."

For non-U.S. citizens, please consult your local embassy for more information.
